Code of Behaviour

It is important for all employees, volunteers and others in contact with children / young people to:

- Treat all children/young people with respect.
- Provide an example of good conduct for others to follow.
- Operate within the Church principles and guidance and any specific procedures.
- Be visible to others when working with children/young people whenever possible.
- Challenge and report potentially abusive behaviour.
- Develop a culture where children/young people can talk about their contacts with staff and others openly.
- Respect each child's/young person's boundaries and help them to develop their own sense of their rights as well as helping them to know what they can do if they feel that there is a problem.

In general, it is inappropriate to:

- Spend time alone with children/young people.
- Take children/young people to your own home.

Employees, volunteers and others must never:

- Hit or physically assault or abuse children/young people.
- Develop sexual relationships with children/young people.
- Develop relationships with children/young people which could in any way be deemed exploitative or abusive.
- Act in ways that may be abusive or may place a child/young person at risk of abuse.

Employees, volunteers and others must avoid actions or behaviour that could be construed as poor practice or potentially abusive. For example, they should never:

- Use language, make suggestions or offer advice which is inappropriate, offensive or abusive.
- Behave physically in a manner which is inappropriate or sexually provocative.
- Have a child/children/young person/people with whom they are working to stay overnight at their home.
- Sleep in the same room or bed as a child/young person with whom they are working.
- Do things for children/young people of a personal nature that they can do for themselves.
- Condone, or participate in, behaviour with children/young people which is illegal, unsafe or abusive.
- Act in ways intended to shame, humiliate, belittle or degrade.
- Discriminate against, show different treatment, or favour particular children/young people to the exclusion of others.

I confirm that I have read and understand the code of behaviour and I agree to abide by and adopt the Safeguarding Children policy, standards and procedures of the Diocese of Killaloe in all aspects of my work.
