

May 22nd:

The Poor and Marginalised:

When Jesus looked he saw in
The way that his Disciples did not see.

His task was to bring them to a new way of seeing.

It was a difficult journey but they came to it.

How we see is how we live.

Killaloe Diocese invites you to
An Adult Faith Formation

Summer series

‘How do we see Young People,
Women, and the Poor in the Church today’

May: 8th, 15th, 22nd
8pm— 9.15pm

Where: Killaloe Hotel
Killaloe, Co Clare.

This series is for people of the parishes of Killaloe, Castleconnell and Clonlara which form the Scath na Sionnaine Pastoral area. The three sessions will deal with each of the following three important issues in the Church today— How we see young people, women, and the poor.

Each session will comprise of

A short presentation of the topic
(about 20 minutes)

A facilitated discussion
(about 30 minutes)

A summary and evaluation of the discussion and feedback
(about 15 minutes)

A preview for next week and final prayer
(about 10 minutes)

Light refreshments to conclude.

May 8th:

The Young People:

Exploring their Spiritual Landscape, Vision, Values, Vocation and Voice.

May 15th:

Women in the Church:

What is the position of Women in the Church today?

How do we view our position as women and as Lay People?

How is the Synod exploring this issue?

